A Report on Investor Awareness Program

The MBA Department of Vidyabharti Trust College of Master in Computer Application (VBTMCA) successfully organized an Investor Awareness Program on 25th September 2025, focusing on MCX (Multi Commodity Exchange) and NCDX (National Commodity Derivatives Exchange), in collaboration with SEBI, Mumbai. The event was coordinated by Dr. Hiral Tailor,and Prof. Parth Naik. The session was specially designed for First-Year MBA (FYMBA) and Second-Year MBA (SYMBA) students to enhance their understanding of financial markets and investment opportunities.

The resource person for the session was Dr. Nemik Shah, a SEBI SMART Trainer, who delivered an insightful and engaging lecture on the dynamics of commodity markets and the importance of investor awareness. Through practical examples and interactive discussions, Dr. Shah explained the functioning of MCX and NCDX, the role of SEBI in safeguarding investor interests, and the significance of financial literacy in making informed investment decisions. The session provided students with valuable insights into trading practices, risk management, and the impact of market fluctuations on commodities.

The interactive nature of the program encouraged students to actively participate, ask questions, and clarify their doubts about real-world investment scenarios. The event proved to be highly beneficial in bridging the gap between theoretical concepts and practical market applications. It not only deepened students' knowledge of financial instruments and market mechanisms but also emphasized the importance of responsible investing and economic awareness.

Overall, the Investor Awareness Program was a highly informative and enriching experience that contributed significantly to the financial education and professional development of MBA students at VBTMCA.
