A Report on Role Excellence and Habits for Effectiveness

A workshop on "Role Excellence and Habits for Effectiveness" was organized on 7th October 2025 under the coordination of Prof. Khushboo Kayasth and Prof. Sejal Vaghela. The workshop aimed to enhance students' personal and professional development by focusing on the essential habits and skills required for effectiveness in academic and career pursuits. The session featured two distinguished experts, Shri Himanshu Bhatt and Shri Alkesh Rana, who shared their valuable insights and practical experiences with the participants.

The workshop began with an engaging session by Shri Himanshu Bhatt, who discussed the importance of cultivating good habits and eliminating bad habits to achieve excellence in any role. He emphasized how habits shape one's character and influence overall performance in both personal and professional spheres. Through interactive discussions and relatable examples, he highlighted the significance of discipline, consistency, and self-awareness in developing effective behaviour patterns.

Following this, Shri Alkesh Rana conducted an insightful session on resume and interview effectiveness, guiding students on how to present themselves confidently in professional environments. He explained the key components of a strong resume, the importance of aligning one's skills with job requirements, and techniques to perform effectively during interviews. His session provided students with practical tips to enhance their employability and prepare for future career opportunities.
