Report on Financial Market Session on Security & Commodity Market

A Financial Market Session on “Security & Commodity Market” was organized for the MBA students on 31st August 2026. The session was conducted with the objective of providing students with practical knowledge and a better understanding of financial markets beyond the concepts covered in the classroom.

The session was conducted by Mr. Nehal Taparia, Associate Vice President & Financial Market Trainer at Empirical Academy. Through his expertise and industry-oriented approach, he introduced students to the fundamentals and functioning of the Security Market and Commodity Market. The session focused on connecting theoretical concepts with real-world financial market practices and helping students understand the importance of financial markets in the economy.

The expert shared valuable insights into various aspects of financial markets and explained the concepts in an interactive and easy-to-understand manner. The session enabled students to enhance their awareness of market operations and develop a practical perspective towards investment and financial decision-making.
