Brief Description of the Event:

As part of the celebration organized by the State Government under the theme "25 Years of Development Journey – 25 Years of Karmayogi Service", Vidyabharti Trust College of Master in Computer Application, enthusiastically organized various activities to promote social responsibility, awareness, creativity, and active participation among students and faculty members.

1. Cleanliness Campaign – 17th August 2026:

A Cleanliness Campaign (Swachhta Abhiyan) was organized on 17th August 2026 on the institute campus. The campaign witnessed active participation from NSS students and faculty members. The participants cleaned various areas of the campus and surroundings, spreading awareness about the importance of cleanliness and maintaining a hygienic environment. The activity also encouraged students to understand their responsibility towards society and the environment.

2. Elocution Competition – 24th August 2026:

As part of the "25 Years of Development Journey – Karmayogi's 25 Years of Service" celebration, an Elocution Competition was organized to encourage students to express their views on contemporary developmental and social issues. Total 20 students from MCA, MBA & IMSc.IT were participated to express their views. The participants delivered speeches on the following themes:

1. Gujarat's Growth
2. National Challenges in Current Times
3. Women's Role in the Development of Society

The competition provided students with an opportunity to demonstrate their public speaking skills, confidence, awareness, and analytical thinking. The participants presented their views with enthusiasm and addressed various aspects of Gujarat's development, challenges faced by the nation, and the significant contribution of women to the progress of society.

Two eminent judges, Dr. Jigar P. Variyavwala, Associate Professor, SNPIT & RC, and Prof. Jignesh Makwana, assistant professor at BVPIT, were invited to evaluate the performances of the participants. They assessed the participants based on their content, presentation, communication skills, confidence, fluency, and overall delivery.

The winners of the Elocution Competition were felicitated for their excellent performances. Gamit Srushti Ashokbhai from MBA (Sem-1) secured the 1st Rank, while Tiwari Nidhi Rakesh (sem 3) and Mukti Bharatkumar Panchal (Sem 1) both from MBA jointly secured the 2nd Rank. Purohit Pinta Sureshkumar from IMSc.IT (Sem- 3) secured the 3rd Rank. All the winners were appreciated for their outstanding performance, confidence, and active participation in the competition. The winners were awarded cash prizes in recognition of their outstanding performances.

3. Reel-Making Competition – 1st September 2026:

A Reel Making Competition was also organized to encourage students to creatively showcase their ideas through digital media. The competition focused on themes related to development, social responsibility, national progress, and the role of citizens in building a better society. Students from MCA, MBA & IMSc.IT programmes participated enthusiastically and demonstrated their creativity, technical skills, and innovative thinking through meaningful and engaging reels.

The competition provided students with an opportunity to effectively utilize digital platforms to convey positive and socially relevant messages. The participants showcased their talent by presenting creative content that reflected their understanding of development and social responsibility.

The winners of the Reel Making Competition were felicitated for their outstanding performances. Khushi Nakrani from IMSc.IT (Sem -5) secured the 1st Rank, while Avani Patel from IMSc.IT(Sem-3) secured the 2nd Rank. Gunjan Deora and Anushkaa Singh from MBA (Sem -1) jointly secured the 3rd Rank. Their achievements were appreciated, and they were congratulated for their creativity and enthusiastic participation.

Conclusion:

The activities organized under “25 Years of Development Journey – 25 Years of Karmayogi Service” received enthusiastic participation from students and faculty members. The Cleanliness Campaign, Elocution Competition, and Reel-Making Competition collectively contributed to developing social awareness, civic responsibility, communication skills, creativity, and a sense of active participation among students. These activities successfully reflected the spirit of responsible citizenship and collective contribution towards the development of society and the nation.
