Event Name : Celebration of International Women's Day

Event Date, Time and Location: 7th March 2026, Universal Welfare Trust, Sp. Care Center for Slow Learners, Kharvasa

Brief Description of the Celebration:

International Women's Day was celebrated by the female faculty members of Vidyabharti Trust College of Master in Computer Application, Umrakh with a meaningful social service activity. The celebration took place on 7th March 2026 with the objective of spreading kindness, empathy, and social responsibility.

On this occasion, the faculty members visited Universal Welfare Trust, Sp. Care Center for Slow Learners, Kharvasa, an institution that cares for individuals with special needs. Instead of organizing a conventional celebration, the faculty decided to dedicate the day to community service and compassion.

During the visit, the faculty members distributed food packets to the residents of the ashram. The initiative aimed to support the ashram residents and bring joy to their day. Apart from distributing food, the faculty members also spent quality time with the residents, interacting with them, sharing conversations, and creating a warm and friendly environment.

The visit was a heartfelt experience for everyone involved. The interaction with the residents highlighted the importance of empathy, care, and social inclusion. The faculty members felt grateful for the opportunity to celebrate Women's Day by contributing positively to society.

The activity reflected the true spirit of International Women's Day, emphasizing compassion, empowerment, and service to the community. Such initiatives encourage social awareness and inspire others to celebrate important occasions with meaningful acts of kindness.
