Report on Dahi Handi & Bhajan Jamming

The auspicious festival of Janmashtami was celebrated with great enthusiasm and devotion at Vidyabharti Trust College on 3rd September 2026. The celebration was organized to commemorate the birth of Lord Krishna and to promote cultural values, devotion, togetherness, and active participation among the students, faculty members, and staff.

The celebration commenced with a Bhajan Jamming programme at around 10:30 AM. The programme witnessed enthusiastic participation from faculty members and staff representing different departments and institutes under the Vidyabharti Trust. The participants came together and presented various devotional bhajans dedicated to Lord Krishna.

The Bhajan Jamming session created a peaceful, devotional, and joyful atmosphere on the campus. Faculty members and staff members participated wholeheartedly, making the session engaging and spiritually enriching. The melodious bhajans added a special charm to the Janmashtami celebration and brought everyone together in the spirit of devotion.

The session also provided an opportunity for faculty and staff members from different departments to interact and participate in a common cultural activity. Their enthusiastic performances reflected the spirit of unity and cultural togetherness within the Vidyabharti Trust.

Following the Bhajan Jamming programme, the Dahi Handi celebration was organized at around 1:00 PM. The event was jointly celebrated by SNPIT&RC and VBTMCA, bringing together students, faculty members, and staff from both institutes. The campus was filled with excitement and festive energy as everyone gathered to witness and participate in the celebration.

As part of the traditional celebration, Aarti and Thal of Lord Krishna were performed with devotion. The religious ceremony created a spiritual ambience and allowed everyone to seek the blessings of Lord Krishna. Students and staff actively participated in the devotional proceedings.

After the Aarti and Thal, the celebration continued with energetic music and dancing. Students enthusiastically joined the celebration and danced with great excitement. The vibrant atmosphere, cheerful participation, and festive spirit made the Dahi Handi celebration a memorable experience for everyone present.

The Dahi Handi activity also highlighted the importance of teamwork, coordination, unity, and determination. The participants displayed remarkable enthusiasm and team spirit while taking part in the traditional activity. Their energetic participation added excitement and entertainment to the Janmashtami celebration.

At the conclusion of the celebration, trophies were distributed to the Dahi Handi participants in recognition of their excellent performance. The felicitation encouraged the participants and appreciated their dedication, teamwork, and enthusiasm in making the event successful.

The Janmashtami celebration concluded on a joyful and memorable note. The combination of Bhajan Jamming, Aarti and Thal, Dahi Handi, music, and energetic participation made the celebration culturally meaningful and entertaining. The event successfully brought together students, faculty members, and staff from different institutes of the Vidyabharti Trust, strengthening the spirit of unity, devotion, and togetherness.
