Report on Satyanarayan Katha

A Satyanarayan Katha was organized at Vidyabharti College of Master in Computer Application, on Saturday, 22nd August 2026. The religious ceremony was organized to mark the completion of three years of the VBTMCA new building and to seek divine blessings for the continued growth, prosperity, and success of the institution.

The programme commenced with the traditional rituals of the Satyanarayan Katha, in which the teaching and non-teaching members of VBTMCA participated with devotion and enthusiasm. The ceremony provided an opportunity for all members of the institution to come together, offer prayers, and express gratitude for the successful journey of the institution over the past three years in its new building. The peaceful and spiritual atmosphere created a sense of unity and togetherness among all the participants.

The event also served as a platform for strengthening the bond among the members of VBTMCA. The collective participation of the teaching faculties and non-teaching faculties reflected the spirit of harmony, cooperation, and institutional togetherness. The occasion was celebrated with a sense of gratitude and positivity, wishing for the continued development and achievements of the college in the coming years.
