Brief Description of the Event:

On the occasion of Gandhi Jayanti on 2 October 2026, Vidyabharti Trust College of Master in Computer Application, organized a Swachhata Abhiyan at its adopted village, Umrakh. The initiative was organized as a meaningful tribute to Mahatma Gandhi and his vision of a clean, healthy, and responsible society.

The cleanliness drive was actively supported by Dr. Dhaval Jadhav, Principal, the NSS Coordinator, Heads of Departments, faculty members, and enthusiastic students of the institute. The participants collectively engaged in cleaning activities and contributed towards improving the cleanliness and hygiene of the surrounding area.

The activity aimed to create awareness about the importance of cleanliness, personal responsibility, environmental care, and active participation in community development. It also encouraged students to understand their role as responsible citizens and to contribute positively to society beyond the classroom.

The Swachhata Abhiyan provided a meaningful opportunity for students and faculty members to work together for the betterment of the community. The initiative successfully promoted the values of cleanliness, social responsibility, community participation, and environmental awareness.

Conclusion:

The Swachhata Abhiyan was a purposeful initiative that reflected Mahatma Gandhi's ideals of cleanliness and civic responsibility. Through active participation in the cleanliness drive, the institute reaffirmed its commitment to community engagement and encouraged students to become responsible citizens committed to building a cleaner and better society.
