A total of 65 students from all institutes of Vidyabharti Trust came forward to donate their blood, reflecting their compassion and commitment to social responsibility. Proper medical check-ups were done before donation, ensuring the well-being of every donor.

The initiative not only contributed to saving countless lives but also inspired students and staff to realize the importance of community service. The trustees and faculty members expressed their heartfelt gratitude to the donors and the medical team for making the camp a success.

The event concluded with the message that "Blood donation is the greatest donation, as it gives someone a new lease of life." The camp truly embodied the spirit of Ganesh Chaturthi—spreading positivity, hope, and humanity.
