Report on Observing a Long Silence for Plane Crash Victims

On 13th June 2025, Vidyabharti Trust College of Master of Computer Application (MCA, MBA & IMSc. IT), Umrakh, Bardoli, observed a solemn moment of silence in memory of the victims of the tragic plane crash that occurred in Ahmedabad on 12th June 2025. The incident, which claimed numerous innocent lives, deeply moved the entire nation and left an indelible impact on all hearts.

In solidarity with the grieving families and as a gesture of respect, the entire campus community gathered to pay homage through a collective moment of silence. Students, faculty members, and staff assembled with bowed heads and heavy hearts to remember those who lost their lives in the unfortunate accident. The atmosphere was filled with grief, yet marked by unity and compassion.

The Principal of the college addressed the gathering briefly before the observance, expressing heartfelt condolences to the bereaved families. She highlighted the importance of standing together in times of sorrow and reminded everyone of the fragility of life. The silence was maintained with utmost sincerity, reflecting the empathy and emotional connection of the participants with the victims and their families.

Such moments of reflection foster a sense of collective responsibility and human connection among students and educators alike. Vidyabharti Trust College remains committed to nurturing not only academic excellence but also values of empathy, social awareness, and humanitarian concern. The observance concluded with prayers for the departed souls and wishes for strength to those affected by the tragedy.
