Brief Description of the Competition:

Under the nationwide initiative "Har Ghar Tiranga, Har Ghar Swachhta", a Tiranga Rangoli Competition was organized at Vidyabharti Trust, Umrakh on 14th August 2025. The event aimed to celebrate the spirit of patriotism and creativity among students while promoting cultural values and national pride.

The competition witnessed enthusiastic participation from students who showcased their artistic talents by creating rangolis that beautifully reflected the colours of the Indian Tricolour and the unity of the nation. The participants skillfully blended vibrant colours with themes of patriotism, filling the atmosphere with a sense of cultural charm and devotion towards the country.

In this inter-college competition, Ms. Shruti Rajput from Semester-3, MBA Department, secured the Second Rank, making the institute proud with her creativity and dedication.

The winners were congratulated by Dr. Dhaval Jadhav, Principal of VBTMCA, along with NSS Coordinator Prof. Priyank Patel, who appreciated the efforts of all participants and encouraged them to continue contributing their talents towards such meaningful initiatives.

The competition not only celebrated artistry and innovation but also instilled a deep sense of national pride, unity, and responsibility towards the Swachh Bharat vision. The event turned out to be a vibrant success, resonating with the values of patriotism, creativity, and cultural heritage.
